In Loving Memory Of

Rhylin Zane Gee

2008 ~ 2017

To All Parents:

*"I'll lend you for a while a child of mine," He said.
For you to love the while he lives and mourn when he is dead
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,
But will you, until I call him back, take care of him for me?
And shall his stay be brief, you'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true,
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love? Not think the labor vain.
Nor hate me when I come to call to take him home again.
I fancy that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, thy will be done."
He'll bring his charm to gladden you the risk of grief we'll run.
We will shelter him with tenderness will love him while we may.
And for the happiness we've known forever grateful stay.
But shall the angels call for him much sooner than we planned
We will brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand*
