

Bryan Ray McMahon

Bryan was born January 6, 1963, in Price, Utah, to Katherine (Causer) McMahon and Ray Hunter. He grew up in Flagstaff, Arizona, with his mother and step-father, Gerald McMahon, now deceased.

He graduated from high school in Flagstaff. He went to technical school in Phoenix and received a degree in heating and air-conditioning.

Bryan spent several years working in his family's pawn shop in Flagstaff. There he grew to have a great appreciation of Native American art. Later, he worked for various electronic companies for a number of years.

In Flagstaff, he met Jane Ramey and they were married in Nemo, SD, on June 16, 2001. They have lived in the Black Hills for the last 10 years.

Bryan Ray McMahon, 54, passed away Saturday, May 13, 2017. After years of operations and debilitating pain, Bryan chose to go to the Lord.

He leaves behind his wife, Ellen Jane McMahon; his mother; his father; two sisters; three brothers; and other extended family and friends.

Bryan loved music of all kinds, bird watching, and star gazing. He will best be remembered for being able to fix anything that plugged into the wall.

In lieu of flowers a memorial has been established to the Nemo Community Church.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch in the church hall following the committal service. We thank you for your presence and condolences.

Psalm 103:15-22
KJV

*¹⁵ As for man, his days are as grass:
as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.*

*¹⁶ For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone;
and the place thereof shall know it no more.*

*¹⁷ But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
and his righteousness unto children's children;*

*¹⁸ To such as keep his covenant,
and to those that remember his commandments to do them.*

*¹⁹ The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens;
and his kingdom ruleth over all.*

*²⁰ Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments,

*²¹ Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts;
ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.*

*²² Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion:
bless the LORD, O my soul.*
