

Arlo James "Buck" Thybo

Arlo James "Buck" Thybo was born in 1933 to James and Mary (Wicks) Thybo and grew up ranching in the Slim Buttes in Harding County, SD. He attended grade school just over the hill from his house. He graduated from Nisland High School, where he lived with Bud and Jean Sorenson.

Buck was a paratrooper with the 101st Airborne Infantry from 1954-1956. He came back to the Thybo ranch, and married Karen Steele (who passed away in 1976). He continued to ranch, breed quarter horses, and broke many horses.

He enjoyed loading up most Sundays and going to the area team ropings. Buck was known for his good heart, teasing, kidding and good humor. He enjoyed his friends and having a good drink and a good time. He had many talents; he was an auctioneer, pilot, bar owner, and a truck driver besides ranching. He loved a good bucking horse.

Buck left this world on November 10, 2017, on Veterans Day, after a battle with cancer.

He had survived by his 4 children, Kay Kornemann, Cal (Gail) Thybo, James (Rhonda) Thybo, and Oddette Lambert; 13 grandchildren, Tresea, Ty, and Ashley Thybo, Wacey and Wade Kornemann, Trever, Tate, and Jesse Thybo, Joey Thybo, Amanda Mason, Pete Stocker, and Karen and Katie Lambert; 5 great-grandchildren, Aonna, Brayden, Caydence, and Dannica Mason, and Ryder Kornemann; and one sister, Marie (James) Donahue.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Karen; parents, James and Mary Thybo; and 2 sisters, Marge Wulf and Elaine Larson.

A memorial has been established to the Little Dane Church.

1933 ~ 2017

I am an angel feather sent down from God above
To serve as a reminder of His most gracious love.

I'm from your Guardian Angel
that God assigned to you.
I fell out in her struggles
as she protected you.

Each time you nearly stumble;
each time you nearly fall;
Thank God and all His angels
for answering your call...
