

Angus LaRue Forbes

Angus LaRue Forbes was born on February 18, 2006. He was put into the loving arms of James and Teresa to complete our family by joining his two siblings, Nicolis and Lilly. His amazing life as a little boy was all about fishing, playing hard, swimming at the lake, and quietly resting in the lap of a family member reading a book. As he grew up, he added football and basketball to his list of passions. His first touchdown, sack, and three-point shot were proud moments and a fun part of the ups and downs of playing sports. Early on, he became known to all as “Gus the Bus” Forbes for his strength and aggressiveness. His short life was filled with love and passion for his friends and family, making everyone laugh with his quick sense of humor. He was a skier, snowboarder, fisherman, dancer, singer, football and basketball player, lover of lake time, and quiet time snuggled up with mom and dad. Not a day went by when he didn't tell someone he loved them. Today he is with God in Heaven and lives forever in our hearts and in all the beauty on earth.

Gus was brave enough to fly down all the ski runs at Terry Peak, sing a solo and learn a tap dance in community theater, power through an offensive line to find and sack the quarterback, ride the Incredible Hulk roller coaster, act and sing in Christmas plays at Church, say prayers and hold his mom and dad's hand in public. He did things in his life that amazed us. His entire family supported him and had immense pride in everything he accomplished.

When you are faced with something that may feel too hard to do “Do it for Gus”.

Gus is survived by parents, Teresa and James; brother, Nicolis (Kaiya); sister, Lilly; grandmothers, Denise LaRue and Janice Forbes; aunts, Janalee (Wade) Sexton and Carole (Joel) Skalsky; honorary uncle, John (Carolyn Johnson) Teigen; and many great aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Maury LaRue and Chaplain Jim Forbes.

Memorials can be made to Pioneer and Rimrock Camp and Sturgis Youth Athletics.
