

Tamara "Tami" Carter Nacey

Tami was born November 13, 1957, in Rapid City to George and Charlotte (Engle) Carter. She was a simple and sentimental person. Tami loved springtime, listening to the birds sing, playing jokes on family, and having family play jokes on her. She was a wonderful listener, never judging and never complaining. Most of all, she loved spending time with her children and grandchildren, a loving and caring mother and grandmother. She will be deeply missed.

Tamara "Tami" Carter Nacey, 60, Sturgis, died Friday, March 23, 2018, at Rapid City Regional Hospital.

Tami is survived by her children, Nicole Nacey, Kerri Nacey, and Adrienne Nacey; and her grandchildren, Drew Nelson, Kennedi Nacey, Ireland Nacey, Skyler Bryant, Jace Johnson, and Gavin Nacey; mother, Charlotte Carter, two sisters; Deborah Snook, and Sharla Price.

She was preceded in death by her father, George Carter; and many special friends throughout the years.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

GOD SAW

God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be So He put His arms around her and whispered "come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer and saw her fade away
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hardworking hands to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He takes the very best.

Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little – but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the Love that we once shared
Miss Me – But let Me Go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
And a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me – But Let Me Go
