

Judy Lorine Horlick

Judy was born June 24, 1955, in O'Neill, NE, to Emil and Phyllis Slattery. Her early years were spent on several ranches throughout Nebraska, South Dakota, and Colorado. The family settled in Sterling, CO. Judy finished her high school education in Sterling, and then gave birth to her first daughter, Kim, on September 14, 1972. One year later, she gave birth to her son, Neil, on September 23, 1973. In November of 1973, she met her first husband, David Gleason. They were married on February 16, 1974. On October 10, 1974, she gave birth to their daughter, Brandy.

In 1981, the family moved to Gillette, WY, where her dad opened his diesel repair shop. It was Emil and Ron's Diesel Repair. She worked there until her dad passed away in 1989. She then cleaned houses with her sister, Vonnie, for a number of years. Judy and David divorced in 2000, and she then met her current husband, Gary Horlick. They were married on March 15, 2004. Judy decided to stay at home to raise her stepson, Cameron. She also wanted to stay home to help her mom take care of their home, Slattery Acres.

Some of Judy's favorite things included: her horses, her kitty cats (especially her kitty cat, Thelma), crafting, wood working, her flower garden, crossword puzzles, and decorating for Christmas. She especially enjoyed spending time with her family. She loved acting silly with her grandkids, and her great-grandson. She always lit up when her great-grandson would come to spend time with his "GG." She had a favorite thing she would say when her kids or grandkids would head home: "Don't do anything I wouldn't do, and if you do, name it after me."

Judy (Slattery) Horlick, 63, passed away peacefully at Close to Home Hospice House on September 6, 2018, in Gillette, WY.

Judy is survived by her husband, Gary; her mom, Phyllis; her children: daughter, Kim (Tim) Hahn and their children, Dustin, Amber, and Shelby; son, Neil Prehmus; daughter, Brandy (Shawn) Zentner, and their children, Shawnice (great-grandson Asher), Shannon, and Bradley (great-granddaughter Aryiah); stepson, Cameron; brothers, Ron (Pam) Slattery and Daniel (Lisa) Slattery; sisters, Vonnie (Kenny) Gentry-Bergfield and Linda Ford; as well as several nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Judy was preceded in death by her dad, Emil, in 1989; brother, Emil Jr., in 1990; as well as her maternal and paternal grandparents.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

The family would like to invite you to join them for fellowship and refreshments following committal in the church hall. We thank you for your presence and condolences.

Farewell Dear Mother
~ Author Unknown ~

Somewhere in my heart
Beneath all my grief and pain
Is a smile I still wear
At the sound of your dear name
The precious word is "Mother"
She was my world, you see.

But now my heart is breaking
Because she's no longer here with me
God chose for her His angel
To watch me from above
To guide me and advise me
And know that I am still loved

The day she had to leave me
When her life on earth was through God had better plans for her
For this, I surely knew

When I think of her kind heart
And all those loving years
My memories surround me
And I can't hold back my tears

She truly was my best friend Someone I could confide in
She always had a tender touch
And a warm and gentle grin.

I want to thank you, Mother
For teaching me so well
And though the time has come
That I must bid you this farewell

I'll remember all you've taught me
And make you proud, you'll see
Thank you, dear Mother
For all the love you showed me

Although you've left this earth
And now you've taken flight
I know that you are here with me
Morning, noon, & night.

I love you, Mother

To My Wife

When we get to the end of our lives together,
the house we had,
the cars we drove,
the things we possessed won't matter.

What will matter, is that I had you,
and you had me.
